A 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization

Ancestry—Honor—Friendship

An organization dedicated to the perpetuation of the ancient customs, literature, music, games, and dress of Scotland and its people.

Benefits of Nevada Society of Scottish Clans Membership

Does the sound of the bagpipe give you goose bumps? Do you have an ancient desire deep inside to wear tartan patterns? Have you ever wondered about the difference between shortbread and haggis? Do you long for high rounded mountains wrapped in a cozy mist and green heather? Are you yearning to display your manly legs under a kilt, or see manly legs under a kilt? Do you enjoy the songs and poems of Robert Burns? Or are you just curious about Scotland and its people?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then the Nevada Society of Scottish Clans can help you! We offer numerous opportunities to satisfy these passions including:

- Entertaining and informative programs
- Spirit o' the Scots, monthly newsletter
- Social activities with other Celtic organizations
- Tartan Day celebrations
- Annual Picnic
- Tartan miniature golf
- Kilted night at an Aces game
- Nevada Day parade
- Christmas party
- Kirkin' of the Tartans
- participation in Celtic Celebrations
- Library of reference and fiction books

We also sponsor one of the biggest and best Robert Burns Celebrations on the West Coast. In addition, we present the annual Silver Thistle Award to the Scot of the Year for Northern Nevada and provide financial aid to those individuals and groups that promote Scottish heritage.
